

Pacific Jewel Fact Sheet

P&O Cruises Australia's Latest Superliner

Built:	1990, Renovated for P&O Cruises in 2009
Gross tonnage:	70,310 gross tonnes
Length:	245 metres
Width:	32.5 metres
Draft:	8 metres
Decks:	11
Speed:	Maximum 22.5 knots
Propulsion:	Diesel-electric 24,000kW
Passengers:	1950 passengers
Passenger space ratio:	36 tonnes (per passenger)
Crew:	712 crew – more than one crew member per 3 passengers
Passenger cabins:	628 standard outside cabins; 206 standard inside cabins
Cabins with balconies:	198 outside cabins with private balcony – the most in the fleet
Suites:	36 mini-suites with private balcony
Passenger facilities:	Distinctive profile designed by world-renowned Italian architect Renzo Piano, Aqua Health Spa Fitness – the largest spa in the fleet, aerial stage for circus and music performances, six dining options including Salt Grill by Luke Mangan , three-storey atrium, eight bars and lounges, two swimming pools, whirlpool spas, library, casino, showlounge, duty-free shopping and medical centre.